5. Income tax withholding election

- Regardless of your withholding election, you're responsible for paying any tax due on the taxable portion of your distribution.
- If taxes are withheld on the distribution, the amount you requested in Section 4 will decrease by the amount withheld.
- You may be subject to penalty taxes if federal and state taxes are due and either your estimated tax payments or the amount of tax you have withheld is insufficient under IRS rules or your state's rules.

Federal income tax withholding

- Distributions from a Roth IRA aren't subject to withholding, but you can request withholding.
- Distributions from traditional, rollover, and SEP-IRAs are subject to federal tax withholding at a rate of 10% unless you check Don't withhold.

Special rules for addresses outside the U.S.

If your payment is being directed outside the U.S., we're required to presume your tax status to be foreign and withhold 30% federal income tax from your distribution unless one of the following applies:

- You're a U.S. person and we have a valid IRS Form W-9 on file at the time of your distribution. We're required to withhold 10% federal income tax from your distribution. You can't elect out of federal income tax withholding for distributions delivered outside the U.S.
- You're not a U.S. person and you've submitted a valid IRS Form W-8BEN on which you've claimed tax treaty benefits. If you're eligible for a reduced withholding rate based on a tax treaty your country has with the U.S., you may claim the reduced rate by completing Form W-8BEN, including the section titled "Claim of Tax Treaty Benefits," and provide either your U.S. taxpayer identification number (TIN) or your foreign TIN. If your claim is valid, the reduced rate will be applied.

If you have an address outside the U.S. and aren't sure whether we have a Form W-9 or W-8BEN on file for your account, please call us. We'll provide you with further instructions for completing the appropriate form.

*Where applicable, shares will be distributed from the IRA owner's settlement fund. When such funds aren't available, we understand that our organization representative may need to initiate securities transactions with a Vanguard representative to make the necessary funds available before any distributions can be made.

If you don't check a box, Vanguard will withhold 10% of the distribution unless it's coming from a Roth IRA.
